

Heinz Arbaugh | film scout | location manager

I'm an independent contractor with many years' experience. Based in Herne Bay, Auckland, I also have strong family connections to the South Island.

With a keen eye for detail and a diplomatic approach, I help facilitate the transformation of a director's vision with quality locations and seamless management.

My career in the film industry began in 2009 with Imagination TV on America's Next Top Model, coordinating the daily movements of Tyra Banks and her entourage.

Moving from reality and drama to commercials, I work with outstanding production companies including Smuggler, Exit, Goodoil, Big Pictures, Sweetshop, Scoundrel, and Finch, assisting some of the world's most talented directors, producers, and agencies.

I hold a Diploma in Adventure Tourism and Marine Ecology. I'm interested in music, film, art, mountain biking and sailing.

I've recently worked on commercials with:

Jakob Marky

Steve Ayson

Nathan Price

Fiona Mcgee

I have also scouted for ABC, on "the wilds" TV series, and managed the second unit.
